NAHU Designations

Registered Employee Benefits Consultant (REBC)

NAHU membership gives the opportunity for members and non-members to earn various designations. NAHU states, “Earning the Registered Employee Benefits Consultant (REBC) designation elevates your credibility as a professional.” Additionally, “The designation program analyzes group benefits with respect to ACA environment, contract provisions, marketing, underwriting, rate making, plan design, cost containment, and alternative funding methods.” To learn more about the REBC certification and pricing, visit <http://nahu.org/professional-development/rebc-designation>

Leading Producers Round Table (LPRT)

The best of the best. That’s what the Leading Producers Round Table (LPRT) is for America’s benefit specialists. It’s where the nation’s best performers in the business get recognized for their leadership and rewarded for their accomplishments...with tools and benefits that will help keep them at the top of their game. Only members of the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU) can qualify. To apply for the designation, go to www.nahu.org/resources/leading-producers-round-table/online-application/online-lprt-application
